“Best of the Show” 2008 Awarded to Kolibri Art Studio

► Published by Chalk & Vermilion Fine Arts, artist Felix Mas’ “Cabalito del Mar” was named “Best of the Show” for Kolibri Art Studio at the 2008 Golden Image Awards.

TORRANCE, CA—Kolibri Art Studio was awarded three top awards for fine-art screen-printing in an international printing competition. The awards were presented as part of the 2008 Golden Image awards, presented by the Specialty Graphic Imaging Association (SGIA), during its annual expo and conference in Atlanta. More than 19,000 attendees from 93 countries attended the event, which featured 588 samples of the finest screen-printing produced worldwide.

Artist Felix Mas’ “Cabalito del Mar” and “Sketches of Franz Liszt” earned “Best of the Show” and “Gold” titles, respectively, and Liudmila Kondakova’s “London” earned the “Silver” title. All images are available through Chalk & Vermilion Fine Arts.

The judging was based on complexity; registration; image definition; special effects; uniqueness and innovation; color appearance and brilliance; and the all-important “wow” factor. For more information, visit www.kolibriartstudio.com. ABN
